

Study program: Economics

Name of the subject: Introduction to Agricultural Economics

Teacher(s): Zekić Stanislav, Matkovski Bojan, Jurjević Žana, Đokić Danilo

Status of the subject: Compulsory

Number of ECTS credits: 6

Conditions: No conditions

Subject goal

Study of economic laws in the agribusiness sector, i.e. introduction to the characteristics of agricultural production, food industry and input industry.

Outcome of the subject

Mastering the basic knowledge in the field of agricultural economics and agribusiness, and training students to understand the economic laws in agriculture, i.e. the characteristics of the functioning of the agribusiness sector as part of the overall economy.

Subject content

Theory

Agriculture and economy development of EU and Serbia; Policy of support to agriculture and rural development in EU; International trade of agri-food products; Implications of Common Agricultural Policy of EU on competitiveness of agrifood products in Serbia.

Practical learning

Elaboration and study of theoretical-methodological teaching units with the tools of quantitative analysis and qualitative economic synthesis on the basis of empirical data, presentations and discussions on the topic of seminar papers and case studies.

Literature

Božić D., Bogdanov N., Ševarlić M.: Ekonomika poljoprivrede, Poljoprivredni fakultet u Beogradu, 2011. (Parts)

Zakić Z., Stojanović Ž.: Ekonomika agrara, Ekonomski fakultet u Beogradu, 2005. (Parts)

Zekić S., Matkovski B., Jeremić M., Jurjević Ž., Đokić D. Osnove agrarne ekonomije, Ekonomski fakultet u Subotici. (The textbook will be the result of the project AgriCOM)

Number of active teaching classes	Theoretical teaching: 3 per week	Practical teaching: 2 per week
	1.

Method of carrying out the teaching

Theoretical and practical learning, development and discussion of a case study, with the use of software packages for quantitative simulations in agricultural economics.

Evaluation of knowledge (maximum number of points 100)
Pre-exam obligations	points	Final exam	points
Activity during lectures	5	Written exam
Practical teaching		Oral exam	30
Colloquium (2x25)	50
Seminar(s)	15				